

Hi,

My name is David Griffiths. I am very passionate about diving and training people to dive. I have been diving for 12 years and working with The Dive School for over 6 years. I am a fully qualified PADI Open Water Scuba.

I especially enjoy diving and teaching in British waters, with its great variety of interesting dive sites and slightly more challenging conditions. This makes us all better & safer divers. Have also dived in a many other countries such as Cuba, Dubai, Thailand, California and all over the Red Sea.

My favourite dive to date was in the Red Sea watching a very rare Dugong (aka Sea Cow). In just 6m of water, it looked prehistoric with a large pink body and giant whale tale. It had small soulful eyes and large mouth that hovered up the sea grass, emitting billowing clouds of silt. It was incredibly graceful and beautiful in a 2 tonne pink sort of way!

As far as training goes, taking most people from a state of anxiousness and little or no knowledge to a competent & safe diver is very rewarding. It is great to hear from my students when they return from visits around the UK or different parts of the world and I get updates on their underwater adventures.

I really enjoy sharing my knowledge and making the course as rewarding as possible.

I look forward to meeting you soon

David